Pops in the Spotlight

featuring Jonathan Mchugh

Favourite Film: Garden State

Music I Like: I like all sorts of music, but my favourite artists include; Placebo, Coldplay, The Shins, The Yeah Yeah Yeahs, Jamie T and Regina Spektor

Celebrity for a Day: I would be Eddie Izzard – Because he's down to earth and very funny, he has a good outlook on life and is able to see the funny side to any situation, he cares about the things that matter and supports things like Amnesty International. He never let fame go to his head (too much anyway)

Greatest Achievement: to date, getting 42nd in a national short story competition to be published into an anthology, about 10,000 people entered, that's my greatest achievement so far.

Most Embarrassing Moment: Forgetting the words to one of our songs when my band played a pub called The Fenton in Leeds, but I soon re-remembered them, I only missed 3 lines, it was me who wrote the song though.

Who I'd most like to meet: I'd most like to meet George Bernard Shaw – to just talk to him about his books and be inspired by one of the most significant dramatists since William Shakespeare.

Stranded with only 3 items: I would take my guitar so I had music, a Wok so I could still be experimental cooking on the deserted island and paper so I could write to keep myself occupied (a pen would be a bonus and could fit in the binds, but you could make a pencil on an island)

One word to describe myself: creative
